

FITZSIMONS RITES AT TRINITY TODAY

Services at Noon With In- terment in Magnolia Cemetery in Charleston.

Mrs. Christopher FitzSimons, the former Miss Frances Huger, died at 2 o'clock yesterday morning at her residence, 1724 Gervais street.

Mrs. FitzSimons was born January 10, 1863, and spent her early life in Charleston.

She is survived by a daughter, Mrs. J. Richard Allison; a son, Christopher FitzSimons, Jr.; two granddaughters, Miss Nathalie H. FitzSimons and Miss Frances H. Allison; three grandsons, Christopher FitzSimons, 3rd, J. Richard Allison, Jr., and C. F. Allison; and a sister, Mrs. H. V. Sampson of Cincinnati, Ohio.

Funeral services will be conducted at noon today from Trinity church. Interment will follow in Magnolia cemetery in Charleston at 3:30.

Palibearers will be: Eugene S. Read, J. Waties Thomas, James B. Murphy, Frank J. Dana, S. C. Rhame, Fauntleroy Ball, Harry R. E. Hampton and James H. Hammond.