LOCAL MATTERS.

☞ SEE SECOND AND THIRD PAGES. ☜

THE PURSER of the steamer Dictator has placed us under obligations for late Florida and Savannah papers.

—o—

THE PIC-NIC of the German Sunday School will take place on Monday next, as per advertisement in another column.

—o—

CLOSING STORES.—As will be seen in our advertising columns, many of our most prominent merchants have concluded to close their places of business on certain days, thereby giving their employees time for that healthful recreation and exercise which is so necessary during the summer months. It is to be hoped that all of our business houses will follow the example so laudably begun.

—o—

DR. CHRISTOPHER FITZSIMONS.—We were pained to learn yesterday that this estimable gentleman had come to a premature grave by a sad accident. While out on his plantation, about 25 miles from Charleston, he was overtaken by a great storm, on Thursday, about 1 P. M., and sought shelter in a barn, and while there in fancied security, the house fell in, and killed him and a negro woman, who also had repaired to this place of refuge. Dr. F. leaves a large family and many warm and admiring friends to mourn his loss.

—o—

TURN-VEREIN.—An advertisement in to-day's NEWS informs us that this Club give their last entertainment for this season on Monday evening next. To judge by the programme, we shall expect lots of fun. Der verwunschene Pruiz is a very fine comedy by J. VON PLOETZ. An amusing farce, Der Alexandriner oder Korporal Puffke in Dresden, is to follow next; and, finally, the usual Tanz Ordnung. Members will take notice that they must procure tickets from the Committee.

—o—

THE STAY LAW.—We call the attention of our friends to the fact that the Stay Law has been set aside, and that the State Courts are open for the collection of all debts. It would be to the advantage of all of our citizens against whom claims have been placed in the hands of lawyers in this city, and who have been notified thereof, to see or correspond with them at once, as Return Day is rapidly approaching; they may thereby save themselves trouble and the expenses of unnecessary litigation.

—o—

CONCERT AT THE BATTERY THIS AFTERNOON.—As has been announced already the fine Band of the 6th U. S. I. will give regular Concerts, for the benefit of the public, every Saturday afternoon during the summer months, the first commencing to-day at 5.30. The following is the programme, and we can promise all those present an excellent entertainment:

1. March from Opera—"Gemma di Vergy."
2. Overture—"Fra Diavolo."
3. Waltz—"Il Baccio."
4. Potpourri—"Trovatore."
5. Polka—"Militaire."
6. Selections from "Martha."
7. Quickstep—"Tannhauser."

—o—

TIRED OF LIFE AND LIBERTY.—A respectable citizen, a few days ago, walking about the wharf on Deignan's Ship Yard, at the northeast end of town, saw an old negro man in a little boat, fastening a rope to a large "rock," and then take the said rock into his boat, and start out on the river. Our informant says he thought the negro was going out fishing, and had shipped the stone as an anchor. The water was very deep, and the supposed arrangements not altogether practicable. His curiosity was excited; he watched the little craft from a distance, and presently saw the large stone go over the gunwale of the boat, and, to his surprise, saw the old negro follow his anchor. The old fellow had evidently tied himself to one end of the rope, and the stone to the other, and thus ensured a speedy death.

—o—

PASTORAL PURSUITS.—We saw a pleasing exhibition of the rus in urbe yesterday. About 11 o'clock in the morning, near the corner of King and Mary streets; we observed several members of the Charleston gensdarmerie in pursuit of sundry mammals, which VIRGIL euphoniously called "the he-goats' wives." These modern Arcadians seemed to enjoy the sport. From the eagerness displayed in the chase, however, we cannot consider them the legitimate successors of TYTIRUS and MELITŒUS, who watched their flocks with true pastoral care and tenderness. No, they drove the poor goats through the hot sun, in reckless haste, more akin to the step-motherly care bestowed upon his flock by the hireling DAMŒTAS.

However, we were not disposed to be too critical. Here, then, we had an ocular proof that the golden age had at last arrived. The sword has been beat into the ploughshare, and the club into the shepherd's crook. The men of war and the law's ministers, finding their occupation gone, have turned their attention to pastoral pursuits. Such was the pleasing illusion, soon, alas, to be dispelled. Our "calculations," it appeared, were premature.

Half an hour later we saw a plain civilian drive two of these goats back down King street; sympathising PHYLISES and GALATEAS along the line of march anxiously inquiring of the melancholy MELITŒUS how he had got his goats back again. "By paying four dollars for them—two dollars apiece." "My law!" quoth in chorus the sorrowing shepherdesses; "and who did you give the money to?" "To the Lieutenant." A light began to dawn upon our benighted fancy. The supposed shepherds, it turned out, are policemen still, and were zealously engaged in "pounding" these stray goats, as provided and specified by City Ordinance, duly passed and ratified to meet such cases.

Rueful in the superlative degree was the countenance of the unfortunate proprietor of these guilty quadrupeds. He muttered something, but we were not sufficiently near to catch the precise tenor of his blessings.

—o—

PROVOST COURT, May 18.—The United States vs. Wm. Blanchard, colored—Stealing newspapers.—B. A. FITZGERALD sworn: Keeps at No. 147 King street; missed our newspaper for a long time; complained to the office; they said they delivered it regularly. I watched this morning, and caught the defendant stealing it, and had him arrested. The paper is the "CHARLESTON DAILY NEWS." Found guilty, and sentenced to five days' imprisonment.

[This is a pursuit of knowledge under difficulties. We cannot approve William's morals, though his taste is to be commended in making his selection. This case establishes an important precedent. Stealing the NEWS is an indictable offence, for the which, if you are caught, you are liable to go to quad.

But if purloining the NEWS is felony, what shall we say of stealing from the NEWS, as many of our admiring exchanges do every day in the year. Let them take warning by William's fate. Copy as much as you like, but give credit.]

United States vs Abraham Chapman, colored—Threatening life of P. Robertson, colored.—Peter Robertson sworn, said: Last night the defendant threatened to take the life of my brother with a slung-shot; defendant was courting, and the match was broken off, and he seems to blame me for it. He was in the yard, laying in wait for me. Found guilty, and fined $10, or to be imprisoned five days.

["The course of true love never did run," etc.]

SAVANNAH ITEMS.—We copy the following from the Republican, of the 17th:

The Empire line of New York steamers, of which Mr. B. H. Hardee is the agent in this city, have reduced their rate of passage and freight. The traveling public will now be enabled, by the small investment of $10, to secure a first class cabin passage in the fine steamers of this line. A corresponding reduction has also been made in freight, 10c. per foot. From New York you can receive a barrel of flour for 50c. freight, and a half barrel for 30c.

The efficient police of Savannah appeared in their neat and new uniform yesterday, a description of which we have already published. They may now be seen afar off, and offenders may feel satisfied that those military looking gentlemen dressed in gray are what they should be—"officers" of the city. Our citizens should feel a pride in their well-regulated police force, and should, as is their bounden duty, render them every assistance in preserving the peace and promoting the public good. We would like very much to see a public parade of the whole body in their new uniform.

Mrs. Ellen Aire, a native of Charleston, died in Savannah on the 29th ult., in the seventy-eighth year of her age.

The steamship North Point, Captain Smith, brought another invoice of the contributions of the noble ladies of Baltimore to the suffering poor of Georgia. These additional contributions, consisting of 200 barrels in bulk, with commendable generosity have been transported free of all charges on this steamship. It will be remembered that, previously actuated by the same generous spirit, she brought over 500 barrels. Messrs. LaRoche, West & Daniels, the agents here, and J. B. Andrews, Esq., the agent at Baltimore—through whose exertions this timely benefit has been extended to the needy of our State, will always be remembered in conection with the benevolence of the ladies of Baltimore. And like bread cast upon the waters, in due time it will return with material benefits to all connected with the philanthropic movement.

On Monday morning last, at nine o'clock, the steamer Tamineud left St. Augustine, with freight and passengers, for Jacksonville, under the command of Captain Rainnee, arriving at St. John's Bar at three o'clock in the afternoon, having experienced severe weather during the trip—the wind blowing strong from the northeast, with heavy seas. Upon attempting to pass over the bar, she struck three or four times, and sprung a leak, the water rushing in with great force, compelling a resort to the pumps; but notwithstanding all efforts to keep her clear, Captain Rainnee was under the necessity of running her ashore at Yellow Bluff, about fourteen miles below Jacksonville, where she sank in ten feet of water up to her guards.

The steamer Helen Getty early on Tuesday morning went to her assistance, and took off her passengers and their baggage, and brought them to this city. Every exertion will, doubtless, be made to get her afloat again, and we hope with success.

Major-General Steadman, Commander Department of Georgia, Brevet Major-General Scott, Brigadier-General Fullerton, Chaplain French, Mr. Davis, special artist Harper's Weekly, arrived at Savannah on Wednesday evening on the steamer St. Helena.

Generals Steedman and Fullerton are inspecting the affairs of the Bureau under appointment of the President. We understand they have given a careful examination of its workings in the Eastern, Northern, and Southern part of South Carolina, including the Sea Islands. In their examinations on the coast they have been accompanied by General Scott, Assistant Commissioner for the State. To-day, we understand, the rice plantations above the city are to be visited.

The South Carolina Annual Conference of the African Methodist Episcopal Church is holding its second session in Andrew's Chapel, in Savannah, at this time, Bishop PAYNE presiding.

Bishop Payne alluded to the extent of the mission work in this Conference. The entire Conference is a vast mission, embracing the States of North Carolina, South Carolina, Georgia and Florida. He alluded to the pressing necessity for Elders and Deacons, this being a Missionary Conference, and having a provision in our canon for the reception of members on trial, and election to Deacon's and Elder's orders within a single session, and without waiting for the usual term of probation to expire, and having precedents in the connection, he asked that at least four Elders and a goodly number of Deacons be ordained under this provision.

Conference ordered a Committee on Bishop's allowance, consisting of J. A. Handy, R. H. Cain, A. L. Stanford.

Rev. Mr. Houston's wife and several other ladies were introduced to the Conference.

[Rather novel proceeding in a Conference room.]

COTTON AND CORN IN MARION DISTRICT, S. C.—The Marion (S. C.) Crescent of the 16th, says:

In our last issue we stated that the crop of cotton, so far as we had observed, promised a small yield in this District; but a more extended observation induces us to believe that the stand so far is a success. Even where the seed planted were of the crop grown in 1861 and 1862, excellent stands have been obtained in some localities, and in others where the seed were defective, a sufficient quantity of plants have advanced to that stage of progress as to give assurance to a tolerably good stand. We do not believe that more than two-thirds the number of acres have been sown in cotton, and this will of course reduce the crop to that extent; but other draw backs, such as the unreliability of the laborers employed, and the exhaustion of the lands consequent upon the cultivation of them, for four or five years without the usual fertilizers, will tend to reduce the crop in this District still further, so that upon the whole it may be safely assumed that not more than one-half of a crop will be returned to market.

It further says:

We are glad to be able to say that the provision crops look extremely well, particularly the corn crop, the flourishing condition of which gives promise that at least we will not lack plentiful supply of the staff of life.
